

PROBLEMS
Of The HEART
By Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson.

DEAR MRS. THOMPSON: I am a man 26 years old, and old as I am I have my troubles. For about a year I have been going with two girls and I like both of them—more better than the other. The girls are friends or used to be, unfortunately my relationship with them has made them say vicious of each other. I am not in a position to marry and as a matter of fact I do not like either of the girls well enough for that. The girl I like best seems to care a great deal for me. She is a fine little thing and I wouldn't hurt her for the world. I think it best to go with both girls because of this, so that she will not think my intentions are serious. So far I have kept my relationship on a friendly basis. Does not think it is wrong for me to go with the two girls since I do not intend to marry either? R.O.Y.

I think it is best to go with both girls since you do not intend to marry either. It is unfortunate that you spoiled their friendship, but that cannot be helped now. When a friendship between two girls is broken because of some man it can rarely be mended again.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a newspaperman 19 years old. I have been going with a young wife who works where I do and I love him very much. When I started to go with him I thought of course he was single, but I learned from another source that he has a wife and child, but he and his wife do not get along well together. When I heard that I told him. He admitted it and begged me not to tell him up. He said that he is very unhappy and his love for me is the only thing he has in life. He says that if I do give him up he doesn't know what will become of him. I know that whatever is the trouble between him and his wife it must be her fault, because he is very sweet and kind and thoughtful and he never does or says an unkind thing. As long as I mean so much to him and his wife means nothing, don't you think it would be honorable for me to give him my friendship and encourage him all I can? BETTY B.L.L.

It would not be honorable to encourage him to be untrue to his wife, and you are encouraging him when you allow him to go to you. He has been false to her and to you; he should have told you he was married when he first became acquainted with you. Please your true friendship by influencing him to do the honorable thing by his wife and child.

A Private's Diary

By Fritz Blumenthal.

SANTA MARIA LA FERIA STATIONS, ON THE RIO GRANDE Sept. 1.—We've had a perfect day in every respect. Have been kept busy mostly around camp cleaning up and drying out damp clothes and tent sites. Lieutenant Robert Earle went back to camp La Feria after dinner, after having had the boys out for school and drills in the manual of arms, assisted by Sergeant Ray R. Postelle.

We expected to have a little blowout this evening when Lieutenant McLean arrived from San Benito with a load of goody-goodies bought for the boys. But as luck would have it the big U.S. truck got stuck in the mud about half way to our camp from San Benito. It kind of dampened the boys' ardor a little, but when the lieutenant arrived the blues were quickly dispersed by his statement that the goods would be in by tomorrow noon.

Clearing River Debris.

Cutting weeds and cleaning debris from the river bank has been the main occupation for this afternoon.

The boys got together here today and formed a Johnsonian Society club and elected ac officers: Sergeant Jesse A. Todd, president, and Fritz Blumenthal, secretary and treasurer. The club's purpose is to write and friends at home urging them to support the democratic ticket from top to bottom, and the nominee for sheriff in particular to offset the loss of one vote by having at least one of our friends procure one vote besides his own in his behalf.

To Compare Notes.

We have a membership at the close of our first meeting of about twenty-five, with a committee in the field to enlist every democrat in the company in his behalf. Meetings will be held every Thursday evening after recall for the purpose of comparing notes and recording progress.

Thanks to Jim Beatty and William F. Vahlberg for papers and stamps. They came in very handily. We have not received as yet the supplies which were sent from Oklahoma City about three weeks ago. Everybody is out and outgoing mail is getting down to zero. Our incoming mail is getting down to zero. We're short of reading matter.

IMPORTANT CONFERENCE ON BALKAN SITUATION

BERLIN, Sept. 12.—The visit of King Ferdinand of Bulgaria to the German emperor at eastern headquarters is being made the occasion of an important conference on the near eastern situation, particularly that in the Balkans. King Ferdinand is accompanied by the chief of his cabinet, while the imperial German chancellor Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg is in attendance on the emperor as his responsible political adviser. The other Teutonic allied governments also are represented at the conference which, it is understood, will not be without effect upon the future grouping in the Balkans.

While apparently there is no inclination to divide the lion's skin if the animal is killed, it is considered advisable in view of Rumanian's entry into the war and the Greek attitude, to discuss certain policies and the aims of the Teutonic allies in the near east. Concrete proposals, however, so far as the Associated Press is informed, are not under view. The conference rather is devoted to a general survey of the situation and study of the general lines of the Balkan policy.
